
Sophie A. Krasik

Associate General Counsel (Management) Navy Office of the General Counsel

Sophie A. Krasik assumed the position of Associate General Counsel (Management) on June 4, 2006. Prior to this role, she was the Assistant General Counsel (Research, Development, and Acquisition) from May 1996 through June 2006. As Counsel to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Research, Development, and Acquisition) (ASN (RD&A)), the Navy's Senior Acquisition Executive, she advised the ASN (RD&A) and his deputies on a wide range of acquisition issues in shipbuilding, aircraft procurement, information technology and other areas, with related policy and legislative aspects.

Ms. Krasik came to the Navy RD&A organization from the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command (SPAWAR), where she was Counsel from June 1994 until May 1996. Her primary focus as SPAWAR Counsel was on acquisition issues, including environmental aspects of acquisition as well as the planned SPAWAR move to San Diego under the Base Closure and Realignment (BRAC) process.

From early 1990 until June 1994, Ms. Krasik was Counsel to the Office of Naval Research (ONR). During her tenure, ONR Counsel worked primarily on university indirect cost issues and on technology transfer.

From 1986 through late 1989, Ms. Krasik was Deputy Counsel at SPAWAR. Prior to that time she served (1985-86) as an Associate Counsel at the Naval Supply Systems Command, responsible for NAVSUP field counsel at a variety of locations, including the Far East. While at NAVSUP, she also served as Chairman of the Defense Acquisition Regulation (DAR) Council Technical Data Committee.

Ms. Krasik began her legal career with the Navy in 1980, at the Naval Sea Systems Command. Her duties there included legal work concerning tactical embedded computers and the Navy Nuclear Propulsion Program. Prior to joining the Navy Office of the General Counsel, Ms. Krasik served as an attorney at the Federal Trade Commission (1974—1980).

Ms. Krasik graduated from Radcliffe College (1970) and Harvard Law School (1974), both cum laude. At college, Ms. Krasik was a National Merit Scholar and received a scholarship from the Newspaper Fund. She also served on the staff of the Harvard Crimson.

Ms. Krasik has been awarded the rank of Meritorious Executive within the Senior Executive Service (1998), and the Navy Superior Civilian Service Award (1994). She is a member of the Bars of Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.
